

Yonhee Gordon

As Chief Operating Officer at JMG Financial Group, Yonhee is responsible for employee development, day-to-day operations of the firm, and executing strategic planning for the firm's initiatives. She focuses her efforts on organizational development to ensure the sustainability of JMG's long-term operations. Since starting at JMG in 1986, Yonhee has presented at various industry conferences on topics ranging from career development to business management strategies, in addition to being featured in various industry publications. Prior to her current role, she served as a financial advisor to clients at JMG by providing tax and wealth management services. Yonhee is a principal owner of the firm, a member of the Executive Committee, Board of Directors, and spearheads JMG's involvement in community service. She is a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional, a member of NAPFA, Financial Planning Association and was named as one of the 2018 Women to Watch by Investment News. Yonhee serves as a board member for the Youth Symphony of DuPage and is on the Executive Board and President's Council for Almost Home Kids affiliated with Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital. Her involvement as a speaker in the Korean-American community stems from her own experiences growing up with immigrant parents. She holds a BA in Communications from Dominican University.
