

Jayne Rosefield

Jayne is Head of Global Strategy & Transformation at Brunswick Group. In this role, she works closely with Brunswick's CEO Henry Timms in delivering the firm's strategic growth plans across its global network of 27 offices. Jayne also leads the firm's Corporate Leadership & Transformation practice, helping clients define and bring to life their leadership ambition – something that has become a strategic imperative in today's dynamic and ultra-competitive business environment.

Jayne advises clients on their most reputation-defining moments, especially during periods of change and transformation. She is a trusted advisor to Boards and C-Suite executives, with over 20 years of global experience counseling clients on financial situations, crisis communications and corporate reputation.

Prior to joining Brunswick in 2005, Jayne worked in the Syndicated and Leveraged Finance group at JPMorgan in New York. She has a Bachelor of Arts degree (Magna Cum Laude) in History and Literature from Harvard University, and a Master of Arts degree (Distinction) in English Literature from University College London. She is a director of BritishAmerican Business, a member of The Chicago Network and a Daniel Burnham Fellow.
